AUTHOR EVENT & AUTHOR PURCHASE ORDERING INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE US/CANADA

Due to strict guidelines regarding the proper encryption of credit card transactions, purchasing author copies via our website is the only method of purchase. Entering promo code 13W0801 in the Add Coupon box will automatically calculate and apply a 40% discount to your order. Phoning our distribution center is no longer an option because all calls are recorded and taking credit card information over the phone violates PCI Compliance regulations.

Points to take into account when ordering books:

• UC Press.edu requires full payment via credit card at the time of online purchase on all author orders.
• Please note that orders placed on our website with a discount code are subject to taxation.
• It takes approximately 12+ business days for books to arrive. If you are buying books right before your book publishes, you will need to add 12+ days to the pub date, not the order date.
• Authors are responsible for shipping costs.
• If books need to arrive by a certain date, you must select the appropriate expedited ship method.
• Books ordered using an author discount are meant for personal use and not for resale.
  o In cases where an author’s contract legally grants permission to resell books, you are required to set up a retail account, separate from your author account, by contacting Ingram Publisher Services at IPSJacksonOrders@ingramcontent.com or call 800.343.4499.

TIMING LOGISTICS

Events should not be scheduled until after 3 weeks or more from the publication date of the book.

• When planning domestic (North American) events, venues must be contacted at least two months prior to publication date, in order to inquire if the venue in question has dates available.
• To ensure that books ordered for a confirmed event arrive with ample time prior to the scheduled date, UC Press Sales must be informed about the event one month ahead of time.
• Allow at least two weeks for standard (ground) delivery. If an order is placed on a tighter time schedule, books may not be available with ground shipping; if stock is available, you/the venue are responsible for paying for rush shipping.
• We are unable to arrange for books to ship directly from a printing facility to an event location.

AUTHOR EVENTS AT BOOKSTORES

Bookstores with existing IPS accounts should contact their UC Press sales representative to purchase stock for author events, or by contacting, Ingram Publisher Services at: IPSJacksonOrders@ingramcontent.com or by calling, 800.343.4499 OR, if preferred, from their wholesaler of choice.
AUTHOR EVENTS AT NON-BOOKSTORE VENUES

It is highly recommended that non-bookstore venues purchase via UC Press website using a promo code. Please contact ccooke@ucpress.edu for discount and promo code information.

- Please note that orders placed on our website with a discount code are subject to taxation.
- If the venue cannot purchase via ucpress.edu, the venue must establish an account with Ingram by contacting Ingram at 800-343-4499.
- Shipping cost must be determined by calling an IPS customer service rep at 800.343.4499.

Books purchased for INDIVIDUAL AUTHOR EVENTS are fully returnable AS LONG AS THE ORDER CLEARLY STATES AUTHOR EVENT.
