

Save the Date! April 5th, 2010

California Food Policy Advocates,
California Association of Food Banks, California Center for Public Health Advocacy, Center for Ecoliteracy,
California Endowment, Prevention Institute, San Francisco Department of Public Health (Environmental Health), Strategic Alliance,
& UC Berkeley Center for Weight and Health

Invite you to join us!

for a discussion with Janet Poppendieck,
followed by a moderated panel,
including Pat Crawford and others, highlighting the policy issues discussed in Jan's newest book,
Free For All: Fixing School
Food in America

The panel discussion will underscore the policy implications raised by Free for All and

- The connections to President Obama's pledge to end childhood hunger by 2015
- The increased national focus on reducing childhood obesity
- The nexus between good nutrition and improved educational outcomes
- The critical role of Congress in supporting increased access to healthy school meals as part of Child Nutrition Reauthorization

When: April 5th, 2010 from 12pm to 2pm

Where: Downtown Oakland, details TBA

Lunch will be served!!

For more information contact:

Ellen at 510-433-1122 x 110 or ellen@cfpa.net

Janet Poppendieck is a Professor of Sociology at Hunter College and is the author of Free for All: Fixing School Food in America (University of California Press, 2010), Sweet Charity? Emergency Food and the End of Entitlement (Penguin, 1999), and Breadlines Knee Deep in Wheat: Food Assistance in the Great Depression (Rutgers University Press, 1985)