

Shadow and Light

Incised in concrete
knife-edged shadow
frond a perfect
arrest of clarity

a palm frond arrow
from a declining sun

shadow and light
lust of epiphany
the illusion that walks with me on concrete

invisible come-along
shadow and light

epiphany of the shadow tangible as light palm shape holds me timeless until without thinking I pass by an arrest of clarity held and released by a declining sun : step over the shadow light vanishes a passerby
